

PRINCE2® Project Management v2017

Foundation & Practitioner Certificates

5 days duration

OVERVIEW

The PRINCE2® method of project management (PM) is internationally accepted as the leading 'best practice' project management approach. It is used extensively by UK and Jersey governments, NHS and many leading businesses throughout the world. It can be used for projects of any size and adapted appropriately.

This methodology has a process-based approach to PM, it focuses on key principles which must be present in every project. However it can be tailored to reflect the scope and risks faced by individual project teams. The training course is a mixture of input and practical case study sessions. The Foundation input delivered on days 1 and 2. The Practitioner section is covered on days 3, 4 and 5.
